

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Liberty University's LaHaye Ice Center provides hockey for men and women of all ages and skill levels. We offer leagues, camps and clinics year-round for groups such as youth, adults and rusty blades.

The LaHaye Ice Center is also the home of the Liberty Flames and Lady Flames Ice Hockey teams. In 2008, the Flames placed fourth in the ACHA Division I Championship after knocking off league powerhouse Penn State.

The Lady Flames also experienced a successful 2008 season, with wins over Michigan State, the University of Maryland and Ohio State. During Flames and Lady Flames home games, the Ice Center seats up to 3,000 fans.

Our facility offers a variety of programs for the Central Virginia area. During public skating hours, skaters may receive hockey or figure skating lessons from our highly experienced instructors. Ongoing programs such as Lynchburg Youth Hockey and the Lynchburg Adult Hockey League (LAHL) are also open to the public.

Lynchburg Youth Hockey is a non-contact league designed to develop the skills of up-and-coming skaters. The league is divided into two age groups, helping to enhance the player's overall experience. Don't miss this opportunity to pass the puck with other players and improve your skills in the exciting sport of ice hockey. We'll see you at the rink!
